Undergraduate Research Scholars Program (URSP)

This program gives undergraduates an authentic research, creative, or scholarly experience under the guidance of a mentor. Students may receive financial support and/or academic credit for their projects, in addition to developing relevant academic and professional skills. Participating students are expected to present the results of their project in a professional forum, such as the Celebration of Student Scholarship at Mason.

Traditional URSP
Available Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters
$1500 minimum of 144 hours
Enroll in UNIV 495/496

Intensive URSP
Available Summer semester only
$5000 minimum of 360 hours
Attend regular development meetings

Student Funding

How to apply:
1) Find a project
2) Meet with a mentor
3) Write your proposal
4) Complete application forms
5) Submit before the deadline.

Deadlines are each semester. Dates posted on oscar.gmu.edu » Students » URSP
Undergraduate Student Travel Fund (USTF)

USTF supports undergraduates who are traveling to present their research or creative projects at regional or national events (i.e., conferences, performances, forums, exhibitions). Student travel funds can be used to support the following expenses, within reasonable limits.

Covered Expenses
- Conference registration fees
- Air, train, bus, or taxi fare
- Car or van rental
- Gas (if traveling by personal vehicle)
- Hotel lodging expenses

Student travel funding is usually limited to $400 per student.

Application details are dates posted on oscar.gmu.edu » Students » USTF
Deadlines are each semester.

oscar.gmu.edu